

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

ROBERTS'S SKETCHES

IN

The Holy Land, Idumea, Arabia, Egypt, and Nubia.

Reduced from the lithographs by Louis Haghe; with Historical and Descriptive Notices, and an Introductory View of Jewish History, by the Rev. George Croly, LL.D. Part I, as a specimen of the work, will be sent to any address, carriage free, on receipt of 3s. 6d. in postage stamps. Messrs. Day and Son are preparing for publication, in double tinted lithography (facsimiles of the original issue), an edition of the above magnificent work, which will alike be suitable for the library or the drawing-room table. To ensure positive identity between this and the original edition, the whole of the plates have been reduced to the required size by means of photography, thus ensuring the reproduction of all the beauties of the originals, both of effect and artistic touch. A prospectus may be had on application, containing the names of the 250 prints of which the work consists:—"The Holy Land, Syria, Idumea, Arabia, Egypt, and Nubia. Following in the footsteps of our Lord, or in those of his Disciples, every spot treated by the artist is consecrated ground, hallowed by associations so deeply interesting, as very largely indeed to enhance the value of these views, beautiful as they are, considered merely as works of art. The series is a rich and full volume of enjoyment and instruction, teaching while giving pleasure, and aiding to confirm that faith which is the surest basis of human happiness." Agents required for the sale of the work in every town and district.

EIGHT HUNDRED GUINEAS' WORTH OF GOLD WATCHES AND GOLD CHAINS

GIVEN TO THE PURCHASERS OF
THE ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE,
Which is Published in Monthly Twopenny Numbers, and Half-crown Annual Volumes, all of which are always in print.

THE ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE has been now established three years, and has the largest circulation of any Monthly Periodical. The number of its Subscribers is daily extending, whilst the literary matter, the beautiful illustrations, and the MAGNIFICENT ANNUAL PRIZES, are commensurately increased in value. Already there have been given away, in the most public and bonâ fide manner, TWENTY-FIVE GOLD WATCHES, made by BENNETT, Cheapside, London, of the full value of FIFTEEN GUINEAS each, and ONE HUNDRED GOLD CHAINS, the workmanship of the same manufacturer, worth FOUR GUINEAS each, making an astonishing total of Eight Hundred Guineas' Worth of Golden Gifts given away in Two Years.

Throughout the length and breadth of the United Kingdom; in England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, and even in the Channel Islands, evidences exist of the thorough honesty and liberality which have governed the Proprietors of the ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE. The truth of the statement, if it is doubted, can be ascertained immediately, by reference to any one of those fortunate possessors of one of Bennett's Gold Chains or Watches, or by making an inquiry of any Bookseller or News-vender in the Empire. The following is a great fact—undeniable and easy of proof—One Hundred and Twenty-five Purchasers of the ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE have received Gifts to the amount of Eight Hundred Guineas; not worthless, trashy articles, but in twenty-five instances an elegant First-Class Gold Watch; and in one hundred instances a Gold Chain, suitable to attach to the Gold Watch.

Two Hundred Prize Cheques, of the Value of Two Guineas each, which were the Gifts decided on for Vol. III.

In order to ensure a share in the Annual Distribution, nothing else is required than the purchase of a bound Volume of the ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE, price 2s. 6d., or of the twelve Monthly Twopenny Numbers, constituting a Volume.

The First Number of Vol. IV was published on May 1.

To any part of the United Kingdom the Twelve Numbers will be regularly sent for Twelve Months, on receipt of 3s. in Postage-Stamps, or Post-Office Order payable to the Publisher,
SAMUEL O. BEETON, 18, BOUVERIE STREET, LONDON.

BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE.

PUBLISHED MONTHLY, PRICE TWOPENCE.

Suitable Prizes, of not less Value than 100 Guineas, Annually distributed amongst the Purchasers.

The BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE is issued with the view of furnishing the Youth of Great Britain with a Periodical especially adapted to their reading. Many of the Serials of the present day do contain portions suited to the intelligence and requirements of Boys, but there is not one (except the BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE) entirely devoted to their culture and amusement.

The pages of the BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE contain Articles of interest, amusement, and healthful and moral excitement, calculated at once to produce pleasure and convey instruction. Tales of Adventure, Stories of Heroism and Courage, are recited; the youthful days of celebrated Individuals are told correctly and simply, and show how the industrious and persevering character of the boy ripened into the activity and greatness of the man. History, charming and romantic in its truth, is not forgotten in the columns of the BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE. The Games which enliven and strengthen the mental or physical powers are described, so as to be easily understood. The Natural History of Animals, of Birds, and Fishes, will also be written, not omitting that of Plants, Trees, and Flowers. The Engravings are numerous and first-rate. The Publishers aim, in short, to produce a Book which may safely be entrusted in the hands of all Boys—one that will "please them and do them good." The Distribution of Prizes will be upon the same model as that of the ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE, which has given such universal satisfaction to its thousands of purchasers. The first Annual Gift with the BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE will be

Twenty Silver Lever Watches, of the full Value of Five Guineas each,

Which will be manufactured and warranted by BENNETT, WATCHMAKER, CHEAPSIDE, where the Twenty Watches may now be seen. Mr. Bennett has supplied to the Proprietors of the ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE the Watches and Chains distributed amongst their Subscribers, and with general and complete satisfaction. They have therefore selected him as the maker for their Gifts with the present Magazine.—The Watches will shortly be distributed at the various Booksellers and News-venders in the different Counties of Great Britain, that the Subscribers may view them.

Beg to announce to Printers and Merchants that they were the purchasers of the celebrated Glasgow Letter Foundry of Messrs. Alexander Wilson and Sons, Great New Street, London, which has been incorporated with their own, under the joint superintendence of Mr. H. W. BANK OF DEPOSIT, National Assurance and Investment ASSOCIATION,

3, PALL MALL EAST, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED A.D. 1844.

Empowered by Special Act of Parliament.

CAPITAL STOCK, £500,000.

This Association is composed of two distinct and separate branches: the one comprising the business of a BANK OF DEPOSIT for the Investment of Capital; the other the ordinary transactions of Life Assurance.

BANKING DEPARTMENT.

The object of this Department is to afford a safe and easy mode of Investment, and to effect important improvements in the present system of Monetary economy, both as regards the security afforded to the Public and the rate of interest realised.

The plan of the BANK OF DEPOSIT differs materially from that of ordinary Banks, or Savings' Banks, in the mode of investing Capital:—a Ultimate profit and security being the main objects regarded, the Board of Management principally employ their Funds in Loans upon vested Life Interests and other similar securities, and in the purchase of well-secured Reversions: a class of securities which, although not immediately convertible, it is well known yields the greatest amount of profit, combined with the most perfect safety.

RATE OF INTEREST.

The present rate of Interest is five per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly; and the Board of Management confidently anticipate that a careful and judicious selection from securities of the above description will enable them to continue this rate to the Depositors.

INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Money is received daily between the hours of TEN and FOUR o'clock. Investment Accounts may be opened with capital of any amount, and increased from time to time, at the convenience of Depositors.

A Stock Voucher, signed by two Directors, is given for each sum deposited.

INTEREST.

The INTEREST is payable in JANUARY and JULY, and for the convenience of parties residing at a distance, may be received at the Branch Offices, or through Country Bankers, without expense.

PETER MORRISON, Managing Director.

Prospectuses and forms for opening accounts sent free on application.

ADDRESS TO THE TRADE.

IN submitting the first edition to the Trade, I have endeavoured to collect, in a concise and intelligible form, a list of all parties interested in the BOOK and PAPER TRADES, together with such other information as I thought might prove useful.

It is not to be presumed that a mass of names, thrown over so large a surface as is comprised in the limits assigned for this work, can in the first edition be complete or correct; and when it is affirmed that upwards of twelve months have been expended in compiling the book, and making such corrections as have fallen in my way, it is hoped that any error or omission will be kindly forgiven, and supplied to the Proprietor for correction in the next edition.

It will be observed that at the end of the work there is an extensive Miscellaneous List; in apologizing for this, I have only to state that many of the names arrived too late for insertion in their proper places, and the others relate to Ireland and Scotland, as far as I have been able at present to collect. I have therefore placed them together in this list, believing that, although they are not properly arranged, they cannot fail to be useful.

It is particularly requested that any errors of description or omissions will be forwarded to the Compiler, who will take care they shall meet with due attention in the next edition, which it is intended to publish early in January next, in which edition the list of names will also be arranged in alphabetical order; indeed, no exertion will be spared to make the DIRECTORY a welcome and useful Annual to the Trade.

I cannot close this short address without thanking many influential members of the Trade for the assistance they have rendered; and to the Postmasters of Great Britain I feel deeply indebted for their promptitude in replying to my inquiries: believing as I do that the Trade at large will find in this work such a List of Names as has never before been in the possession of any firm; and sincerely trusting what it has been my desire to make it will be realised, and that the price it has been published at will place it within the reach of the whole Trade.

W. H. HODSON.

AND

20, PATERNOSTER ROW, LONDON.

IN compliance with the wishes of many of the Country Trade, I have opened the above Central Office with the view of more effectually carrying out the objects of the Agency. The main object is to place Publishers, Booksellers, &c., residing in any part of the United Kingdom, on an equal footing with the trade of the City and Suburbs of London.

The Country Trade generally have long complained of the uncertain transmission from their London Agents of Bills, Catalogues, or Specimens of New Works, &c., of whose existence they have often remained in ignorance a considerable time after the announcement of publication, the excuse of the Town Agent being, that the difficulty of collecting Orders left them no time for collecting Bills, &c. It has also occurred that when numbers of Bills or Show Cards were entrusted to the Agents, some have had sent to them considerably more than they could turn to profitable use, whilst others who should have received their share have been entirely forgotten.

To counteract these evils, I shall devote a great portion of my time to the collecting of Bills, Show Cards, Manufacturers' Price Lists, &c., and distribute them in equal proportions to all my Subscribers, monthly or oftener, as the case may require; the parcels will be addressed individually, and delivered to their Town Agent for enclosure. (Bookage paid by me.)

For collecting Bills, Show Cards, Specimens, &c., receiving parcels for enclosure, packing and forwarding to Agent, &c., it is proposed to charge the sum of Ten Shillings per annum, or Five Shillings the half year; One Shilling to be paid at the time of entrance, which it is hoped will be considered moderate in comparison with the labours I undertake and the advantages I offer.

In addition, any inquiries my Subscribers may require to be made in Town will be promptly attended to, without any extra charge, but in each instance two postage stamps must be sent for my reply.

Respectfully soliciting your patronage,

I remain,

Your Obedient Servant,

W. H. HODSON.

 I am also willing, on the most equitable terms, to undertake the Town Agency of any Country Booksellers wishing their interests to be looked after in London, and regularly forward parcels, weekly or monthly, as may be required.

THE EVIDENCE OF PRACTICAL PRINTERS IS AS FOLLOWS:—

74, 75, GREAT QUEEN STREET,
LINCOLN'S INN FIELDS,
September 12th, 1854.

GENTLEMEN,

We have now had your Copper-faced Type, to the extent of about 5,000 lbs. weight, in use for some twenty months or more, in printing "The Builder," "Eliza Cook's Journal," and in the Railway Library of Messrs. Routledge and Co., and other works in which large impressions have been required, and we are entirely satisfied with the result. In printing, the work is certainly delivered cleaner, and, no doubt, a considerable advantage is experienced where Stereotype Plates are required to be cast from the fount.

Very respectfully yours,

COX BROTHERS & WYMAN,
Printers to the Hon. E. I. Company.

MESSERS. ORCHARD & Co.

THE BIBLE OFFICE, SHACKLEWELL,
April 24, 1855.

GENTLEMEN,

We feel great pleasure in saying, from our long experience of the use of our Type and Stereotype Plates faced with Copper by your process, that we consider their durability has been very considerably increased, and have found great value therefrom in preserving the sharpness and beauty of the type from the wear consequent on the Stereotyping process. We also consider it of great value to the trade, and can bear testimony to its advanced state of perfection, both as regards durability, texture, and evenness of surface, together with the valuable improvement of surfacing, or coating the copper with silver, thereby preventing all fear of corrosion.

Yours faithfully,

EYRE & SPOTTISWOODE.

MESSERS. ORCHARD & Co.

BOLT COURT, FLEET STREET,
September 12th, 1854.

GENTLEMEN,

I have much pleasure in expressing my opinion, that there is a great advantage in the use of Copper-faced Type, especially for works having a large circulation. I have had a fount of Copper-faced Type in use for upwards of twelve months. It has been found to deliver the ink more freely than ordinary type, and requires much less ink. It also wears much longer.

I am, Gentlemen, yours very faithfully,

WILLIAM TYLER.

MESSERS. ORCHARD & Co.

London Gazette Office.

HARRISON & SONS' PRINTING OFFICE,
45, ST. MARTIN'S-LANE,
April 21, 1855.

GENTLEMEN,

Having now had in use nearly three years Type Copper-faced by your process, we have great pleasure in saying, that we have found it to preserve the original sharpness and form of the letter, and works very clean, especially the smaller founts, nonpareil and pearl. We have used our Copper-faced founts both for Printing and Stereotyping.

Yours faithfully,

HARRISON & SONS.

MESSERS. ORCHARD & Co.

PAUL'S WORK, EDINBURGH,
November 25, 1854.

GENTLEMEN,

Having now had considerable experience in your method of coating Types and Stereotype Plates with Copper, we have no hesitation in expressing our warmest approval of the same.

We are, &c.,

BALLANTYNE & CO.

MESSERS. ORCHARD & Co.

STEAM PRINTING OFFICE,
5, GRAYSTONE PLACE, FETTER LANE,
January 10th, 1854.

GENTLEMEN,

I have printed 538,000 impressions from a sheet of Copper-faced Stereo, and have had only to renew a small number of plates. I consider that Copper-faced Plates are better calculated to bear half a million copies taken from them than uncoopered to stand the working of a fifth of that number. You can refer any printer to me for a view of the plates.

I am, Gentlemen, yours obediently,

SAMUEL TAYLOR.

MESSERS. ORCHARD, WILLIS, & Co.

GENTLEMEN,

Though we have not subjected your Copper-facing to any very severe pressure of long numbers, yet we are satisfied of its value, having used the same for twenty months; and we now uniformly have our new founts faced by your process.

MESSES. ORCHARD & Co.

PATERNOSTER ROW,

June 29th, 1855.

We are, yours faithfully,

REED & PARDON.

BEAUFORT BUILDINGS PRINTING OFFICE, STRAND,

GENTLEMEN,

September 12th, 1854.

After having used your Copper-facing on type and plates for more than eighteen months, I am fully prepared to state the following are among the many advantages of Copper-faced type:—The greater facility of stereotyping from Copper-faced type, and producing better-faced plates; the picking being greatly diminished. In composing, the greater facility of distinguishing the letters, especially by night: in printing, its working cleaner, and producing a better colour with less ink. Its durability is increased at least three or four-fold.

I am, Gentlemen, yours, &c.,

MESSES. ORCHARD & Co.

CHARLES WHITING.

STEWART & MURRAY'S PRINTING OFFICE,

15, OLD BAILEY, LONDON,

GENTLEMEN,

September 12th, 1854.

Having now had sufficient time to test the character of your process of Copper-facing, we beg to state that we consider it not only of great efficiency in preserving the type, but also in giving off a cleaner and sharper impression in working. The practice you have lately adopted, of covering the Copper with a coating of Silver, must materially enhance the value of your principle, for, whilst the advantage of the durability of the Copper is obtained, the action of the ley upon it is entirely prevented by the application of the Silver.

We are, Gentlemen, yours, &c.,

MESSES. ORCHARD & Co.

STEWART & MURRAY.

GENERAL STEAM PRINTING OFFICE,

BOUVERIE STREET, FLEET STREET,

August 19th, 1855.

DEAR SIR,

Your system of Copper-facing Type has my entire approval. For Machine Printing its hardness is of essential advantage, effecting the delivery of ink to the paper with great facility and clearness, yielding a bright colour with less ink than is ordinarily required, and thereby decreasing the setting-off. To say nothing of its increased durability, I regard the sharp beauty of the impression obtainable from Copper-faced Type of sufficient importance to me for adopting its use.

I am, your obedient Servant,

MESSES. ORCHARD, WILLIS, & Co.

FREDERICK SALISBURY.

11 & 12, NORTHAMPTON SQUARE,

September 19th, 1854.

GENTLEMEN,

Having for some time past used your Copper-faced Metal for Colour Printing, I have great pleasure in bearing my testimony to its many advantages over Electrotype, which I formerly used, but have now abandoned, much preferring your process.

Yours obediently,

MESSES. ORCHARD & Co.

GEORGE BAXTER.

4, RED LION SQUARE,

September 16th, 1854.

DEAR SIR,

Your Copper and Silver-facing is an invaluable acquisition to Letter-press and Block Colour Printers. It enables the Stereotyper to obtain beautiful casts, without damaging the face of the letter, as formerly. We also consider it enhances the value of the type or plate at least five times that of ordinary type. We have given it a most severe trial by printing on cloth with a stout thread, and the durability of the letter is quite astonishing.

In colour printing it gives the power of producing effects to a great number of impressions, which cannot be done in stereotype without the aid of your process.

Respectfully yours,

MESSES. ORCHARD & Co.

LEIGHTON BROTHERS.

GENTLEMEN,

GOUGH SQUARE,
July 3rd, 1855.

I have been for some time past in the habit of using Copper-faced Type, and my opinion is strongly in its favour. Two works with which I am connected are regularly printed from it—the "Illustrated Byron," and "The Illustrated Times;" and as with both of these, and particularly the latter, the number printed is very large, I think they furnish satisfactory opportunities of testing its advantages.

MESSRS. ORCHARD & Co.

HENRY VIZETELLY.

LONDON JOURNAL OFFICE, 334, STRAND,
August 10th, 1855.

This is to certify that the Copper-faced Type, now in use for printing the "London Journal," has given me the greatest satisfaction; for the Type has not only maintained its original sharpness and beauty, but has been made at least THREE TIMES MORE DURABLE. I have had over FIFTEEN MILLIONS of impressions from this font, which was new in August, 1852. G. STIFF, PROPRIETOR.

The Patentees have lately Copper-faced a THIRD fount of Type for "The London Journal."—January, 1855.

MESSRS. ORCHARD & CO. (the Patentees of the Copper-faced Type, &c.), beg to call your attention to the present condition of the Type used on "PUNCH," which was Copper-faced by them for that publication in December, 1852. Since that time between 40,000 and 50,000 copies have been printed weekly, under a cylinder machine; in addition to which, each number, when worked off, was Stereotyped. This gives an aggregate of upwards of 6,000,000 Impressions Printed from the Type, exclusive of the forms having been Stereotyped upwards of ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY TIMES.

GENTLEMEN,

WHITEFRIARS, July 30th, 1853.

We have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the advantages derivable from the use of Copper-faced Type and Stereotype Plates, combining, as far as our experience enables us to judge, preservation of surface, sharpness of impression, and increased facility and economy in working.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS, &c.

"The Publisher has brought out a Series of Scripture Prints upon a plan which we are satisfied will prove a great help in teaching. The Prints, although only One Shilling each, are remarkably well executed, great pains having been taken to keep strictly to the Text of Scripture, and correctly to illustrate the customs and manners of the period."

"A valuable help in home education."—See Report of the Home & Colonial Infant School Society.

"They require to be seen in order fully to be appreciated."

"Mr. Thomas Varty has just published a Series of Illustrations of Forty Prints of the Bible. The object is to assist Scriptural instruction. Such an object is highly praiseworthy, more particularly so at the present time, when so many are indifferent to Religious instruction. The Prints are well got up. They may be made much of, even in a higher department of instruction, by a judicious teacher of youth."—The Times.

"We speak from experience when we say that these Prints are most attractive and effective, and we would strongly recommend them to all who feel interested in the religious instruction of the young."—Christian Ref.

"The work now before us is one well adapted to assist the Parent or Teacher in conveying to the mind, at a tender age, Scriptural Truths and Precepts, through the medium of sight. As a whole, we unhesitatingly say that this work is far superior to anything of the kind ever attempted in Bible Illustration. The moderate price of the work places it within the reach of all."—Church of England Quarterly Rev.

"We recommend these designs, as being admirably adapted for the purpose of instructing the young. They are suitable either for schools or for private families."—Teacher's Mag.

"We can but express our satisfaction at their creditable execution and useful purpose, and we warmly recommend them to all who have the care of young people. They are coloured with taste and care."—St. James's Chronicle.

"These prints are cheap and richly coloured; we have no hesitation in recommending them to Schools and Families. We wish the work success."

To meet the wishes so frequently expressed, that the former series of these popular illustrations should be extended to the number of FIFTY-TWO, in order to embrace a subject for every week in the year, the Publishers have much pleasure in announcing as ready a continuation Series of Twelve Coloured Prints, the subjects selected as before from the Old and New Testaments, and providing equally valuable aids towards the inculcation of Bible Precepts, in popularly unfolding to the young the Outlines of Scripture History, and impressing a sense of the duties enjoined in the Word of God.

The Publishers respectfully invite attention to the following general remarks on the Object and Plan, the Value and Effect of Pictures, as a most important aid in Education.

All who will examine carefully what has passed in their own minds in infancy, and look back upon early feelings and associations, will discover that their most vivid and lasting impressions have been those conveyed through the medium of sight. It must, indeed, be a very powerful imagination that could realise to itself a scene or event, from verbal description or writing, with the same force and clearness of perception as if it were witnessed. Next to the effect produced by the actual scene will be that of the pictorial representation of it, and hence arises the value of pictures in early education. They arrest attention—speak to the mind clearly and powerfully, and excite curiosity—the child desires to know more of the scene portrayed than the picture can unfold—his mind is brought into an inquiring state, and he is ready to listen with interest to all his instructor desires to communicate, who thus obtains a favourable opportunity of creating a lasting impression.

Discredit has been thrown upon the plan of teaching from pictures, arising out of their having been employed for unsuitable subjects. How perfectly ridiculous is the idea of teaching the abstract science of grammar by pictures!—and how utterly the attempt thus to represent the character of minerals has failed!—besides, it should be recollected that whenever the subject of the lesson is simply an object addressed to the senses, and can be itself presented for inspection, the substitution of a picture is a decided error. Again, we should bear in mind that the time for picture instruction is the first step—when we wish to avail ourselves of the busy activity of the senses, and when the work of abstraction has not systematically commenced.

The Value of Pictures in early religious instruction is very great.

In confirmation of this truth, it is stated that the excellent and pious Doddridge received his first religious impressions from the Scripture subjects represented on the Dutch tiles of his paternal fireside. We shall at once see their importance in infant education, if we only consider that language fails to convey at that tender age adequate ideas, and that all description consequently leaves but a vague impression, while on the other hand a picture presents itself to a sense in lively exercise, and children see brought before them at once the persons engaged in the subject, their feelings and character indicated by the expression of their countenance and figure, the story told by the attitude and grouping—the peculiar habit or dress of the people, the characteristic productions, &c. of the country; and thus, with the help of the explanations and additions of the teacher or parent, they are placed in possession of the whole history, with all its bearings and accompaniments, the several points are correctly arranged in the memory with little effort, and when the SUBJECT is afterwards recalled, the imagination is ready to supply all the minor details, while the LESSONS which the picture is the medium of conveying through appropriate ILLUSTRATION and EXAMPLE, and the PRECEPTS which should enforce every lesson is so connected in the mind as to produce effects far more gratifying and important than merely influencing the imagination. It becomes the channel of religious impressions in subduing the evil and awakening the best affections of the heart.

BRITISH HISTORY must ever form a prominent feature in the education of youth. The admission of this truth is evidenced from the numerous works on the subject, which have for many years been in repute. Pictorial illustrations have advanced their claims; but the subjects selected possessing merely an individual interest, and not connected with the general bearings of History, have rendered less service to education than, under a better system of arrangement, they are capable of doing. The apparent want of a publication directed to the attainment of this object, has induced the Publisher to supply this desideratum in instruction, by the development of the History of our own country.

The work consists of well-executed lithographic drawings, of subjects taken from the History of England, arranged in chronological order, and exhibiting the progress of events to the present reign, whether connected with the religious, political, or domestic state of society. The subjects illustrated are as various as they are interesting, and include portraits of the reigning monarchs, and most distinguished contemporaries; the events connected with the ecclesiastical policy of the country; the development of our constitution; military and naval actions; our progress in art, science, commerce and literature; the erection of our public buildings; foundation of our universities, and the origin of the learned societies; progress of inventions and of the refinements of life; while the manners, customs, and costume of the people are carefully attended to. To render the subject still more clear, and to form a connecting link between the periods illustrated, each Part, containing five plates, is accompanied with an ample page of descriptive letter press, embracing a succinct account of the intervening occurrences.

Opinions of the Press.

"This work makes us aware that artistic talent of no ordinary kind is engaged."—Athenæum.

"One of the best helps to the study of English history, and the most elegant pictorial illustration of the kind we have seen."—Churchman.

"Most capitally executed drawings. The spirit given to the sketches, and the striking impression which this graphic painting produces upon all minds, but especially the young, need not be indicated."—Church of England Quarterly Review.

"They are in the first style of art."—Dubl. Stand.

"We have no hesitation in at once asserting that no work that has hitherto appeared to aid the study of British history can at all compare with it."

Literary Advertiser.

"The Chronological Pictures are on a large scale; and the taste displayed in this ingenious work is sure to secure its success."—Evangelical Magazine.

"An elegant mode of insinuating a knowledge of English history."—Asiatic Journal.

"The Tabular Sheet embraces much valuable information."—Polytechnic Journal.

RADIATED and PLANT-LIKE ANIMALS }

This new and important work is eminently calculated to facilitate the elementary work of instruction in the most interesting branch of Natural History—the Animal Kingdom. And as the pursuit of this study, for general information, requires neither extraordinary powers of understanding nor profound thought, but merely eyes to see and a heart to feel, it may be equally relished by persons of all ages, of all capacities, and with minds of all degrees of cultivation. In the absence of the living animals themselves, a correct representation of their forms and comparative sizes must be considered a most desirable attainment. Such an object is effected in the present publication, which furnishes the most correct, simple, and attractive method of cultivating this study which has ever been presented to notice. Its peculiar features are that all the Animals are drawn from nature on a scale laid down on each print—MAN being given as the standard of measurement, by which means not only the true comparative size of each animal is shown, and the natural size correctly ascertained; but the erroneous impressions which children are so apt to receive from representations of animal life, in which no comparative standard is preserved, are entirely removed.

"GRAPHIC ILLUSTRATIONS OF ANIMALS," though a designation sufficiently explicit for the title-page of a book, is too indefinite to convey an idea of the extensive usefulness and preceptive character of this work. To present accurate drawings and pleasing pictures is not the only nor primary object, but rather to impart lessons of practical importance and daily application in an attractive form, and to open up a subject, which, judiciously applied, is calculated to prove to the young a most interesting and instructive study. The design is to show the Utility of Animals to Man, both in their services during life and in their uses after death; and to deduce results calculated to excite interest and admiration, and evince the Wisdom and Goodness of God in the subsistence, comfort, and social advancement of his creature MAN.

Coloured prints of Animals are always inviting to the eye of children; but to limit the uses of graphic illustrations to an exhibition of external form, or as a means of appreciating symmetry and beauty alone, would be to impart very imperfect lessons, and to leave the mind uneducated and unimproved.

But very different is the result when there is unfolded to the view the wonderful connexion between animals living and after they are dead, and the interests of man, whose dependence upon them for food and clothing, as well as for innumerable other comforts and pleasures, is so entire, as to suggest lessons at once of humility and of devout gratitude. By tracing the various purposes they serve in exciting the healthful exercise and activity of the higher faculties—suggesting mechanical contrivances—furnishing profitable occupation—acting as the prime movers of many of our manufactures, and hence becoming the life of trade and commerce and the source of national wealth, the young mind will be led to a just appreciation of the intrinsic value of each creature, independent of its external form—to observe that those most useful in life are frequently not so after death—and that some of those which, while living, are regarded with aversion, contribute largely when dead to our comforts and enjoyments.

VARTY'S NEW SERIES OF LARGE PHYSICAL MAPS, &c.

The claims of Physical or Natural Geography upon the attention of those who superintend the education of the rising generation are both numerous and powerful, inasmuch as it opens up to the youthful mind a new and most interesting field of study, when contrasted with the too uninteresting details of Geography as usually taught; which has principally consisted in a knowledge of the names of places,—the political boundaries of countries,—and isolated facts. But a contemplation of the objects and movements which Physical Geography exhibit have a special tendency to expand the conceptions of the youthful mind, and to increase its sources of rational enjoyment. To contemplate, for instance, this huge globe of land and water, flying with rapidity through the voids of space, and whirling round its own axis at the same time, to produce the succession of day and night,—to contemplate the lofty ridges of mountains; the flaming volcanoes; the numerous rivers; the majestic ocean, with its currents, and caverns; the luxuriant plains of the torrid zone; the properties of the æriform fluid or atmosphere by which the earth is surrounded; and of all animal and vegetable life; can scarcely fail to stimulate inquiry, and excite the deepest interest.

Physical Geography, instead of being a distinct science is rather a combination of the sciences for the purpose of investigating the relations which subsist between the various phenomena of nature; with Geology, Botany, and Zoology, its connection is apparent.

The Earth, which forms but a portion of the vast system of the universe, is, however, a world complete within itself, where a great variety of operations are continually carried on, all dependent upon, and subservient to, each other, and proceeding in an order of the most admirable harmony and precision. Geography, or the description of the earth, in its general acceptation, professes merely to give an account of the form and divisions of the superficial surface of the globe; but physical geography investigates the laws which have regulated the formation of this surface, and treats of the successive changes which it has undergone until it has assumed its present appearance, as well as the effects of the various influences of climate and temperature to which it is subjected.

The following Physical Maps will be found important aids in the study of this science:

I. A Large Physical Map of the World,

STEREOGRAPHIC PROJECTION.

I. Showing its various features and phenomena; with the regions of its more useful productions, and the Zones. II. The Terrestrial, or Northern Hemisphere; the Oceanic, or Southern Hemisphere. III. Geological Figure of the Earth, and a Theoretical figure of a segment of the Mineral Crust of the Globe, equal to one-sixtieth part of the radius. VII. The heights of mountains shewn in their respective latitudes.

In this beautiful Map is boldly defined the general features of the Globe, viz. The Mountain Ranges, their form and aspect.—The Upland Plains, or Table Lands.—The Lowland Plains.—The Steppes.—The Savannas, or Prairies.—The Deserts and the Valleys.—The Oceans, Seas, Lakes and Rivers, marking clearly the Continents, Islands, &c. Together with other highly useful information.

Index Map, the Wars of the Commonwealth illustrated.

Price, on Sheets, 5s. — On Cloth and Roller, 8s. Size, 3 ft. 5 in. by 2 ft. 7 in.

"The copy before us consists of maps of England and Wales, which exhibit in a highly satisfactory manner the English history from the departure of the Romans, designating the Anglo-Saxon and Danish kingdoms, together with the several ecclesiastical foundations of abbeys, monasteries, &c. They are beautifully engraved and carefully coloured, besides specifying the places where various councils were held, memorable battles fought, &c. Nor are the feudal baronies forgotten; in short, maps so constructed present a body of history, combined with the names of the individual places." — Journal of the Archaeological Association.

"It is but small praise to say that the execution of this part of so important a desideratum to the student of history fully realizes the high expectations we had formed from a view of the prospectus some time ago, when first the project was announced, and that we are persuaded no library will be complete without it, and that every reader of the early history of his country will find unspeakable advantage in having the 'University Atlas' by his side." — Oxford Chronicle.

"Map 1, exhibits the territorial divisions of England in the Anglo-Saxon period; Map 2, the titular dukedoms, earldoms, &c. in the Anglo-Norman period—both with Index maps annexed; the former exhibiting the kingdoms of the eighth century in Southern Britain, and the latter illustrating the wars of the Commonwealth. The maps are executed in the first style of the art; and the aspect of England, at the different periods referred to, is brought so vividly before the eye, that we cannot sufficiently recommend this elegant work to the student of mediæval history. It seems to carry us back to contemplate with our own eyes that which we can only read of in historical works." — Cambridge University Chronicle.

Price on common paper, 2s. 6d. On tinted writing paper, agreeing with the colours of the original, with Historical Table, 5s.

These Outlines, it is believed, will render some assistance, and be an easy method of obtaining a correct acquaintance with the order of the Gospel Narrative of our Lord and Saviour's Life and Ministry.

The importance of such information cannot be made to appear greater, than from the blessing, that four holy men by direct inspiration, recorded, each of them, a history of OUR LORD's life, which taken in conjunction, form one beautiful and harmonious whole.

From the Sunday School Teacher's Magazine.

"The principal advantage of the plan is, that it is systematic. It imprints upon the memory the exact relative position of the several places, together with a variety of collateral information of immense use in perusing Holy Writ. Another advantage is, that it so admirably indicates the pupil's progress; it likewise will tend to his improvement in penmanship, as he must cultivate careful and neat writing in filling up the columns and charts with their respective details. In respectable day-schools and academies this meritorious contrivance might be beneficially introduced. As a plan of study for Sunday-school teachers in their leisure hours, it might also be usefully adopted, and greatly assist them in obtaining more correct data regarding the geography of the New Testament. We quite concur with Mr. Mimprisa in the position he establishes."

A FULL DEVELOPMENT OF THE MIMPRIS' SYSTEM OF GRADUATED SIMULTANEOUS INSTRUCTION IN SABBATH AND DAY SCHOOLS							1 0

The following testimonials furnish satisfactory evidence of its practical working.

"I believe that in Mr. Mimpriss's system I have found what I have been searching for, what I have often tried to form myself."—HENRY ALFRED BARRETT, Curate of All Saints and St. Clement's, Hastings, Sussex, and Scholar of St. John's College, Cambridge.

"I am satisfied as to its decided practical superiority over every other that has come under my observation."—C. W. TENNANT, Assistant Curate of Woodbridge, Suffolk.

"My own experience coincides in its result with your testimony as to the superiority of the Tablet Lessons over the Books."—REV. M. A. COLLISON; Birmingham.

Extract from a lecture "On professional ability in teaching," delivered before the Liverpool Sunday School Institute, by the Rev. C. H. Bateman. He says, "As far as books and general apparatus, as well as original conception, are concerned, this is the most perfectly elaborated system (Mimpriss's,) of any yet presented to Sunday school teachers. The books are invaluable. I know of no books containing so much information and such a mass of important suggestions upon teaching, in such space, as these; and I deem them the most precious contribution to Sunday school teachers that have as yet graced our religious literature. * * * To my own mind, it is by far the best system, and I believe, on examination, will be found in the long run the cheapest we could adopt. It not only gives all the information that our time will allow in the Sunday school, but bears largely on the entire discipline and working of the institutions where it is introduced. So high is my estimation of it, that I believe if it could be fairly brought before all the teachers of our land, and their minds duly informed upon it, it would be ultimately so extensively adopted as to form the 'one system' for our schools."

"If adopted in sabbath-school instruction they will be the means, under the Divine influence, of conferring a great and lasting benefit on the rising generation."—JAMES and CHARLES DURKIN; R. LANKESTER, Southampton.

THE MINISTERS', SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS', AND EMIGRANTS' POCKET VOLUMES.

Just published, complete in two volumes.

THE TREASURY HARMONY OF THE FOUR EVANGELISTS, in the Words of the Authorized Version, according to Greswell's "Harmonia Evangelica;" in Parallel Columns: having numerous and carefully selected Scripture Illustrations, Expository Notes from the most approved Commentators, Geographical Notices, and Practical Reflections, forming a Comprehensive Commentary on the Four Gospels.

Compiled by ROBERT MIMPRISS. Two vols. post 8vo., 21s. bound in cloth, lettered.

. Each volume contains matter equal to five ordinary demy octavo volumes.

"The Scripture Illustrations are pertinent, judicious, and sufficiently ample for all useful purposes. The Expository Notes, from the most approved commentators, are selections which must have required great labour, show much discrimination and an extensive and ripe acquaintance with genuine Scripture doctrine and criticism; while the Practical Reflections are clear, pointed, and often searching, fitted to be 'as nails, and goads fastened in a sure place.' The Geographical Notes are calculated to be eminently useful to the student of the New Testament, who has not opportunity of reference to large and expensive works; and even to those who have, it must be useful, by furnishing at one view what is scattered over many volumes. As in the Expository Notes, so here, there are everywhere evidences of a judicious mind having been employed, and one familiar with what is necessary to the full and clear exposition of the sacred page. Under the head Addenda, there are choice accumulations of varied treasures of thought, research, history, topography,—of almost every thing illustrating manners, customs, opinions, and places of the olden times, necessary for the clear and full perception of the particular instructions and miracles of Christ, and, indeed, of the whole dispensation of the Gospel."

"After a full and minute examination, we can most cordially recommend it to our readers. To Sabbath-school teachers, for whom it is primarily intended, it must be invaluable; and to every one, in whatever department of Christian instruction, it must be of high utility. Ministers of the Gospel will find it no mean auxiliary."

HOME STUDY FOR BIBLE SCHOLARS, or Examination Questions in the Gospel Narratives of the Life and Ministry of Our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 Maps. By R. MIMPRISS. 1s 6d. Fcap. 8vo. sewed.—bound in cloth, 2s. 6d.

Seventeenth Thousand, price 3s.

A HARMONY OF THE FOUR EVANGELISTS, in the words of the Authorized Version, according to Greswell's "Harmonia Evangelica;" in parallel columns, exhibiting, at sight, their minute supplemental structure of sentences and single words; having numerous Marginal Reference-, and occasional Notes; with all the events numbered in Chronological succession, and Geographically localized in an accompanying Chart (size 22in. by 20 in.) of our Lord's Life and Ministry: especially adapted to assist Public Examiners, Bible Class Teachers, and Catechists.

Compiled by ROBERT MIMPRISS, Author of the "Pictorial and Chronological Charts of the New Testament," "Christ an Example for the Young," &c.

"This is unquestionably the most valuable manual for an intelligent catechist that we have seen. We recommend it, on the ground of its intrinsic excellence, to every catechist in the land."—Catechumen Reporter, July 1848.

"To teachers, the work before us will be found an invaluable help; especially if used according to the plan recommended by its worthy and laborious author, whose long efforts to raise the character and qualifications of Sunday school teachers, call for our warmest sympathy, and, in our opinion, merit more general attention than they have hitherto received."—Sunday School Teacher's Magazine, Aug. 1848.

EASY READING LESSONS, Chronologically Arranged in Harmonized Narrative from the Four Gospels, with the places stated at which the events occurred, by R. MIMPRISS. First Grade, 4d. Second Grade, 8d. Third Grade, 8d.

Christ an Example for the Young, as exhibited in the Gospel Narrative of the Four Evangelists.

Harmonized and Chronologically Arranged, Illustrated by Fifty-five Engravings, Printed on different Tinted Papers to distinguish the various Periods of our Lord's Ministry, having Picture Definitions and Exercises, and a Map in Pocket. Third Edition.

By the Author of "The System of Graduated Simultaneous Instruction."

Price, bound in cloth, 7s 6d—Morocco, 10s 6d—Morocco elegant, 12s 6d.

"This is not only knowledge made easy, but instruction made easy. Dull is the parent that cannot teach, and very inapt the child that cannot learn, with such helps as are here provided; and dull beyond all dullness the fancy that cannot be kindled by so much striking, touching, pictorial exhibition. The thing is quite a prodigy in its way: we have here geographical notices of the places where the events occurred, illustrated by fifty-five engravings, with picture definitions and exercises, by the author of the system of graduated simultaneous instruction. The lessons, in all, amount to 100, exhibiting the structure and contents of the four evangelical histories. There is also a class chart for reference, delineating the Gospel Narratives, with every event localized. A history, thus accompanied by geographical notices, with explanations, historical representation, picture definition and exercises, becomes entertaining to a degree, while it is rendered useful by practical lessons, with proofs and illustrations of the doctrine. It is, altogether, a most ingenious performance, leaving, in the deepest shade, everything else of the sort ever hitherto presented. The twenty-eight columns of index exhibit, in a moment, the amazing fulness of the narrative, and the accuracy with which it has been analysed. We have never before seen pictorial power brought to bear so fully and successfully on the illustration of Divine truth."

"The six Cards present a series of names and words relating to the most remarkable persons, places, and events of Sacred History; as well as to the divisions of the Bible, and some of the doctrines of Christianity. These 'Memorial' words are, with few exceptions, arranged according to the order of the Old and New Testaments; and will thus impress the succession of the Books and of their contents on the memory; but the main object proposed is, that they should afford distinct subjects for thought to the pupil, and for examination to the master."

QUESTIONS ON THE MEMORIAL COPIES. Third Edition,

12mo. price 1s. 6d. bound.

"The 'Questions' on the Copies have been framed with a view to enable the master or mistress of a school, or the teacher, to find out whether the children understand what they write, and whether they are making any progress in the knowledge of their Bible."

THE SCHOLAR'S COMPANION TO THE BIBLE. 12mo.

price 2s. cloth.

Containing an explanation of all the Words in the "Memorial Scripture Copies," and Answers to the "Questions" on them. Together with a Chronology of the Bible."

"The Author's design has been, not only to furnish assistance to the schoolmaster or mistress, in making the full intended use of his 'Memorial Scripture Copies' and the 'Questions' upon them, but also to supply a concise explanation of all the principal names and circumstances contained in the Holy Scriptures, as well as of other religious matters, in a form which may be put into the hands of the upper classes of children as a reading book; with this view, much Scriptural quotation has been introduced; and where the order of events is interrupted in the copies, the deficiency has been supplied in the narrative, so as to render the whole a connected abstract of Sacred History, arranged according to the Chronological Table at the end."

PENMANSHIP, BY THE CELEBRATED TOMKINS.

THE BEAUTIES OF WRITING EXEMPLIFIED IN A VARIETY OF PLAIN AND ORNAMENTAL PENMANSHIP, designed to excite emulation in this valuable art. In 41 beautiful Specimens. By THOMAS TOMKINS, W.M. Imperial 4to. Price 21s. bound. The work is also published in Eight parts, 2s. 6d. each.

"Mr. Tomkins, by a boldness, originality, and inexhaustible variety of designing, united to uncommon brilliancy and freedom in the execution of decorative and ornamental writing, has given the utmost reputation to the art of penmanship, of which it is susceptible, and beyond which it seems impossible for human genius to reach. An inspection of his manuscript performances, some of which may be seen in the Chamber of the City, Guildhall, London, and of his engraved specimens in his 'Beauties of Penmanship,' &c., will amply confirm this opinion."

JUST PUBLISHED, THIRD EDITION,

A CIRCLE OF KNOWLEDGE,

Forming a Series of Graduated Reading Books for Children of all ages.

Head-Master of the Yorkshire Institution for the Deaf and Dumb.

THE CIRCLE OF KNOWLEDGE, GRADATION I. Price 9d. 16mo.

SECOND GRADATION—CIRCLE OF KNOWLEDGE AND MANUAL. Price 1s. 6d.

THIRD GRADATION—CIRCLE OF KNOWLEDGE AND MANUAL. Price 3s. 6d.

The Third Edition, contains a considerable number of POEMS in each Gradation, on the Subjects of the Lessons and Sections.

Two chief objects have been kept in view in the preparation of these lessons,— 1st, To provide a series of school-books suitable for elementary classes, and for home instruction at a moderate price, which should comprise information on a range of subjects more connected, extended, and systematic than has ever been introduced into English lesson books;

2dly, To adapt this information by a graduated series of lessons for children of different ages and degrees of advancement; not graduated by commencing with short words among which are nearly all the particles—the most difficult words in a language—but by simplicity of ideas, expressed in short, easy, and natural sentences.

It is a part of the plan (see Preface) that these books shall be used simultaneously in a school or family with different classes or individuals; thus aiding the Teacher by concentrating his attention to one subject during the time appropriated to reading, and making this exercise of the class as easy to him as that of writing. Although the simultaneous use of the three Gradations is recommended where facilities exist, each book is complete in itself and independent of the others; each lower grade being at the same time a preparation for that which succeeds it.

The Fourth Gradation, when published, will furnish a Reading Book for the highest classes.

IMPROVED TABLET LESSONS.

THE CIRCLE OF KNOWLEDGE is also published in TABLET LESSONS with large type, which are suitable for classes of twenty or thirty pupils.

GRADATION I. Demy quarto; the Set of 200 Lessons on 100 Sheets, 8s.

GRADATION II. Royal folio; the Set of 200 Lessons on 100 Sheets, 16s.

GRADATION III. Imperial folio; the Set of 200 Lessons on 107 Sheets, 20s.

Metal frames may be had for each set of the Tablet Lessons.

Full Allowance made to Schools.

Manual for Collective Teaching; 1. Objects. 6d.

Exemplifying by Twenty Exercises the three first lessons of the Circle of Knowledge.

Reading without Spelling. 2d edition. 6d.

One Hundred Short and Easy Lessons, abridged and simplified from the Lessons in the First Gradation of the Circle of Knowledge; especially adapted for teaching the Art of Reading by a natural and simple process, and forming a suitable book for the youngest Readers.

REVIEWS AND NOTICES OF THE CIRCLE OF KNOWLEDGE.

"These small volumes are designed to form, with a fourth, not yet prepared, a new series of class books for children of all ages. The chief objects of their compiler, Mr. Baker, who was already favourably known as a labourer in the educational field, were to provide a series of cheap books more connected, extended, and systematic than has ever been introduced into English lesson books; and also to adapt this information by a graduated series of lessons for children of different ages and degrees of advancement, by simplicity of ideas, expressed in easy and natural sentences.—Midland Counties Herald.

"These books are a successful attempt to provide a graduated course of instruction in the art of reading. We have examined them very carefully, and find them well adapted not only for schools but for private families. The arrangement of the lessons is simple, beginning with the nouns, and extending upwards to the complications of language. The plan of reading is likewise an admirable one, and from extensive practice, we can recommend it to all who are engaged in education. By adopting the plan proposed in these books, however, reading may be learned in a few weeks. We trust Mr. Baker will continue this Reading Course, for no books are more wanted at present than good and cheap school-books, and he is worthy of very high honour who devotes himself to the making of them."—Sheffield Iris.

"The long experience which Mr. Varty is known to possess in the publication of educational works sufficiently guarantees the excellence of the volumes before us, which are written by Mr. Baker. The volumes are strongly bound, a quality which every one engaged in teaching will appreciate. We recommend them to the notice of all to whom is committed the arduous task of juvenile instruction."—Hull Advertiser.

"An excellent little work, designed for use in families and schools, admirably adapted not only to teach children the art of reading, but at the same time to impart to them a vast amount of useful elementary knowledge, and to lead them on from the comprehension of the most simple ideas to subjects of a more abstruse and complicated nature. In the first volume or "gradation" the lessons are very short and printed in large type; in the second and third they are of greater length and suitable for children who are more advanced. One chief peculiarity and recommendation of the work is the correspondence which exists between each of the "gradations," by means of which simultaneous and suitable instruction is provided for every class in a school, whatever may be the degree of progress it has made. For instance, in the first "gradation," the subject of the ninetieth lesson is the "Growth of Vegetables," drawn up in short sentences and with the most simple facts; in the ninetieth lesson of the second "gradation," the subject is precisely the same, only amplified by more extended details, and additional information, which require a more vigorous exercise of the reasoning faculties; the same principle is carried out in the third "gradation," and throughout the whole of the two hundred lessons. The advantages of such an arrangement to the teacher are obviously great, inasmuch as it enables him to concentrate his thoughts upon one subject at a time, and to examine all the classes together."—Sheffield Times.

"These are the best school-books which have fallen under our notice. We consider that the author's plan is entitled to the very highest praise, and among the numerous elementary works offered to the public, we know of none so worthy as the present series of public support. This indeed is high praise, but we fully intend it to be such."—Standard of Freedom.

"We have examined these lessons with much interest and pleasure. They are the production of a practical and experienced teacher, and are well printed in a clear type, on good paper. The subjects have been chosen with care and attention, and graduated in a manner well calculated to ensure the progress of pupils of different ages and abilities. We strongly recommend the Circle of Knowledge to the attention of instructors of the young."—Bradford Observer.

"This is a new and very ingenious plan that has been invented by Mr. Baker, whereby three different classes, having their reading lesson each adapted to their several ages or acquirements, may afterwards receive a gallery lesson together on the subject therein treated of, that will be equally profitable to all. We think Mr. Baker would do well to increase the number of books on the same plan; for in most schools there would be five or six classes, each requiring a different reading book. Scripture history, geographical and historical lessons might all be similarly arranged; thus would the great practical difficulty felt in the instruction of families and schools where there are many capacities, and many degrees of knowledge, and but one instructor, be obviated."—True Briton.

•• The Notes convey information on Words, Phrases, Idioms, Places, Manners, Customs, Arts, Antiquities, and Natural History, and thus prevent the necessity of reference to voluminous and expensive works in the course of a Lesson. The POEMS are short, and calculated to interest the pupils in the subjects of the Lessons.

THE MORE IMPORTANT OF THE FOLLOWING WORKS ARE REDUCED IN PRICE, TO EXTEND THEIR USEFULNESS.

A Chart of Bible Chronology. 4s.

From the Creation to the Revelation of St. John according to the Chronology of the Scriptures.
On rollers. Four shillings.

Some difficulties exist for children in Bible Chronology, which are not to be found in any other history; these difficulties arise from the great age of the Antediluvians; and the long period between certain important events in the first 2,000 years of the world's history. Children become acquainted with consecutive events, but seldom have a correct idea of the intervals between them. To lessen the difficulties thus presented, A TABLE OF CHRONOLOGY is here arranged in which every year is accounted for, from the CREATION TO THE DATE OF THE REVELATION OF ST. JOHN.

The Book of Bible Events. 4th edition. 1s.

✚ This Edition has the Chart of Bible Chronology, in pages, at the end of the book, for reference.

An intelligent child, well informed in Scripture History on going through these Lessons, in their manuscript form—having ascertained by a comparison of the dates that the age of Jacob when he obtained his father's blessing, was seventy-six, said, "There must be some mistake, for that would make Jacob an old man;" and all her preconceived notions were, that he was young when this event took place. These errors are not confined to children, for most people imagine that Esau was a boy when he sold his birthright, and that he and Jacob were still young when Isaac was deceived. To correct such notions this Chronological Table and the Exercises upon it have been constructed.

The above, as Fifty-six Tablet Lessons. 7s. 6d.

Question-book to the Tablet Lessons. 6d.

For Families and Private Schools the Chart and the Book of Bible Events will be sufficient. For large classes the Tablet Lessons, and the Question-Book will be more economical; the type of the Lessons being sufficiently large for a class of 20 pupils.

A Tabular View of the Old Testament. 10s.

Comprising the Order, Date, Event, and Place of Occurrence, and forming a guide to the Chronology, History, and Geography of the Old Testament. Coloured in Periods, Mounted on rollers. Size 5ft. 6in. by 4ft. 6in. The type bold, for Schools.

In using this Chart for Class Instruction with a junior Class, it should be placed before the learners;—the Events recorded in No. 1 should be read; the portion of Scripture indicated, also read, either by them, or to them by their Teacher. They should be asked the leading questions on these events, and eight or ten of the succeeding numbers should be proceeded with, during a lesson of two hours, or according to the importance or interest of the subjects. It is desirable that maps should be used that the localities may be realized.

The Tabular View for Students & Families. 5s.

On a Sheet 8ft. 4in. by 2ft. 4in. Coloured, Mounted on Mahogany Rollers.

The Tabular View in crown 4to. 2s. 6d.

On the suggestion of many parties, chiefly Heads of Families, and young students preparing for the Ministry, the Tabular View has been published as a book.

Bible Exercises on the Tabular View. 9d.

With an advanced Class, each pupil is to be provided with a copy of the Exercises and a Bible. The Chart is to be consulted, the Questions read, and the references attached to the Questions found in the Bible, and read also; each Question being answered by each pupil to himself. The whole class thus prepares itself for subsequent examination by the teacher.

This book may be used as the Fourth Gradation in Schools which adopt the Graduated System of Instruction.

Class Lessons on the Tabular View. 12s. 6d.

Fifty Sheets, printed on both sides. Size of the sheets 21 by 16 inches.

The Lessons on the Old Testament here offered to the Public have the following claims to attention. They are printed in bold Type, so that a class of from twelve to twenty Pupils can read from the same Lesson. They are written in very easy language,—an advantage to young pupils, and no disadvantage to those who are more advanced. They comprehend all the chief events of the Bible History in Chronological Order, and consequently afford an amount of arranged information which isolated facts can never convey.

The Book of Bible Characters. 3d edition 1s.

One or more circumstances connected with each Character are introduced, and all Scripture Names of Persons engaged in important Events are comprised in the work, either as principals or secondary Characters.

The Book of Bible Geography. 3d edit. 1s.

This little work on Bible Geography has been compiled to supply a want which many must have felt in the course of their instructions to the young on Scriptural subjects. Young persons will always feel more interest in the relation of Events connected with certain Places than mere descriptions of those places.

A Tabular Chart of the Gospels & the Acts. 10s.

The Chart of the Gospels and the Acts is intended as a guide to the Order of Events comprised in the Ministry of our Saviour and his Apostles. It is arranged with references to the Four Evangelists; forming an Historical Harmony. It has also a series of numbers which agree with Mimpriss's Maps and Lessons.

 As an Index to the Scriptures, the Charts will be found useful to the Clergy, in examining the pupils of Commercial, Parochial, Sunday, and other Public Schools.
